Parish Involvement Form

How to be the best and happiest member in our community!

Participating in the life of our parish is a vital component to your presence here at St. Mary. To help you discern how you can be the best and happiest member of our parish, please review this form in its entirety. Read the BOLD FACED statements in the shaded boxes to find those that describe you. When you find matches for your interests and skills, review the corresponding ministries below them. Place a check in front of each ministry that interests you. Be sure to tell us about any special talents or skills you may have that you are willing to share.

Return the completed form in the offertory basket, or to the parish office. Someone will be contacting you about your interests.

Complete one form per person. PLEASE PRINT.
